Easy Access to Local Newspapers

Read the Topeka Capital-Journal and Kansas City Star online for free through your library. Follow these simple steps to stay up-to-date on local and regional news.

1. Go to tsclpl.org and select the "Research It" tab (blue bar near top of page)
2. Select "Newsbank: America's News"
3. Select “A-Z Source List”
4. Type in Topeka Capital-Journal or Kansas City Star and click on the newspaper name
5. Select the date you want to view and start reading the paper

Put on the Brakes

If you have books checked out and you’re afraid your holds will come in before you’ve finished your other reads, you can pause your holds. Then you can relax and enjoy your checkouts without feeling rushed. This is also a splendid tool to prevent your holds from coming in while you’re away on vacation.

Pause your holds:

1. Go to tsclpl.org & log into your library account
2. Select “On Hold” from the left menu
3. Click the “Pause” button on the item(s) you want to pause
4. Select the date you want to end the pause & click “Yes, pause holds” button

Cut the celery into 1/3-inch pieces and soak them in a bowl of ice water for 15 minutes. Drain and pat dry. Whisk vinegar, honey and salt together in a large bowl until blended. Add the pears and celery, and gently stir to coat them with the mixture. Divide the lettuce leaves among six plates, and using a slotted spoon top each leaf with a portion of the pears and celery, reserving the vinaigrette. Top each salad with 2 tablespoons of blue cheese and 2 tablespoons of pecans. Drizzle the salads with the remaining vinaigrette and season with freshly ground pepper. Serve at room temperature or chilled.

Ingredients

- 2 celery ribs
- ½ cup apple cider vinegar
- ½ cup honey
- ⅛ teaspoon salt
- 2 ripe but crisp pears, cored & thinly sliced
- 6 cups butterhead or other lettuce
- ⅔ cup crumbled blue cheese
- ⅔ cup salted pecans

Absolutely Truly
by Heather Vogel Frederick
An unsent letter in a first edition copy of Charlotte's Web leads to a hunt for treasure in this heartwarming middle grade mystery from the author of The Mother-Daughter Book Club.
Fans of inspector Ian Rutledge mysteries have a chance to meet the author Sun, Oct 7. Bestselling mystery author Charles Todd is actually a mother and son writing pair – Charles and Caroline Todd. They are both traveling to Topeka to talk about their work, answer questions and sign books, 2-4pm in Marvin Auditorium 101BC.

The first book (of 21) in the Ian Rutledge series, A Test of Wills is one of this fall's 2Book Topeka selections. The other is Jacqueline Winspear's Maisie Dobbs, which is the first of 14 in that series. Take part in this community read with mysteries set in post-World War I England. See if you can figure out who done it!

We asked our friends on Facebook about the last book that made them cry.

- Nicola: The Universe Versus Alex Woods made me cry for days.
- Brigette: The Green Mile
- Ally: Just finished Ms. Bixby's Last Day today and cried. Was telling my husband about it and began to cry all over again.
- Melissa: Reading with Patrick

“Wonder … anytime something happens to the dog, I'm gone.”
-Mel

“I don't really cry at books but Blood at the Root had me tearing up. It's a tough subject to read all at once without getting choked up.”
- Charlotte

“Injustice: Gods Among Us – The whole series had me going off and on. First time a comic book ever made me tear up.”
- Isaiah

“When Breath Becomes Air”
-Nickie

“The Librarian of Auschwitz”
